Disturbing the Peace

The story of Combatants for Peace, an organization of former Israeli and Palestinian fighters who work together for peace. (82 min.)

Roadmap to Apartheid

Roadmap to Apartheid is as much a historical document of the rise and fall of apartheid in South Africa, as it is a film about why many Palestinians feel they are living in an apartheid system today, and why an increasing number of people around the world agree with them. (95 min.)

Censored Voices

One week after the 1967 Six Day War, a group of young Israeli soldiers wrestle with the systemic evacuation of Palestinians, the dehumanizing nature of war, and the echoes of the Holocaust, taking an honest look at the moment Israel turned occupier. (82 min)

Jews Step Forward

"Jews Step Forward" traces a path grounded in Jewish identity, which ultimately separates personal conscience from a socialized mythology loyal to Israel. Twenty-three prominent Jewish Americans trace the evolution of their thinking on the Israeli occupation. (112 min)

Thank God It's Friday

Friday for a Palestinian village and the nearby encroaching Israeli settlement are quite different. The film highlights their differing perspectives. (52 min.)

The Field

"The Field" follows the "Roots" project. A first of its kind initiative between Palestinians and Israeli settlers together working towards coexistence and peace not through politics but rather through a peoples movement developing from the grass roots. (72 min)

Gaza – a Gaping Wound

Documents the real-life effects on families of the 2014 Israeli military offensive in Gaza. (13.5 min)

Gaza in Context

Producer Noura Erakat points out the historic roots of the conflict: for 70 years Israel has sought as much Palestinian land with as few Palestinians on it as possible, and the peace process has only served as a cover for this project. (20 min)

The Danger of Neutrality

Staying neutral in controversial situations is the moral high ground, right? Wrong. It's the exact opposite. Author and inspirational speaker Anna Baltzer explains how neutrality is a dangerous trap -- and an illusion. (10 min)

Bethlehem: Hidden From View

The film shows the strangling and imprisonment of the 'Little Town' of Bethlehem and its impact on the local Christian community. (30 min)

Palestine Pre-1948

Life in Palestine through historical photographs (10 min)
